

Invitation

In regard to the Rescue 2012 world championships in Adelaide (Australia), the team of LifeSaving.nl again organizes an extra competition. At August 26th, the annual LifeSaving.nl Pool Meeting will take place in the 10-lane 50m pool of the Pieter van den Hoogenband swim stadium. The top competitors of the Netherlands and several neighboring countries will start at this competition to have a last shot at or make the last preparations for the qualifications for the 2012 world championships.

All 50- and 100m events are open for everybody. For 200m events and relay events, qualification times apply. The competition program and qualification times are found in the attachments.

Applying for this competition is possible until the 5th of August at 20:00h. The entry form must be filled completely and correctly, and must be sent to martin.teley@gmail.com. Entry forms filled incorrectly will not be accepted. Competition regulations and more information on the entry procedure are found in the attachments. If an entry form is sent, the club or team sending it agrees with all regulations and procedures.

We hope to welcome you at the 26th of August.

With kind regards,

The LifeSaving.nl team
Robert Hendriks
